Supporting women and their families in Central Kentucky since 2013

Our Mission & Vision

100 Women Lexington is a donor and advocacy organization that supports nonprofits who serve women and their families in the Lexington area. We seek to empower and encourage women to join together to create a brighter future for women and families in need of support. This support is accomplished through a yearly distribution of funds from annual membership in the organization. All donations go to the nonprofit organizations that members designate.

Our Agencies

- Ampersand
- Arbor Youth Services
- C.A.S.A.
- Child Development Center of the Bluegrass
- Chrysalis House
- Greenhouse 17
- New Opportunity School for Women
- The Nest
- One Parent Scholar House
- Refuge for Women

Membership Options

We require an annual contribution to be a member of 100 Women Lexington. Your contribution is distributed each year among ten supported agencies in whatever amounts you choose. Contributions are due by our fall annual business meeting in order to have an active membership for that calendar year.

As a member of 100 Women Lexington, you will be invited to several events throughout the year. These events revolve around our different agencies, as well as serving as recruiting events for potential new members.

We are extremely grateful to 100 women for their dedication to the women and children in our program. Their generosity makes a difference in the lives of our courageous women.
